

Everything your employees need, in one place.

Employees have to wade through a sea of knowledge documents, fend off constant notifications and switch between multiple HR systems just to find basic HR information.

Your expensive and capable HR professionals are spending their valuable time answering the same mundane and administrative queries.

The solution? An intuitive HR portal that works hard behind the scenes so your employees don't have to.

- ✓ Freed up HR resource for value-added work: Empower your employees to take charge of their own HR tasks, interact with HR services when they need them and move through their employee journeys on their schedule without dependency on HR.
- ✓ Plummet those HR service desk ticket numbers: No more HR middle-man between employees and their critical HR information. Everything is directly accessible and available at the point of need.
- ✓ Skyrocketed employee productivity: Say goodbye to time wasted hunting for HR information by surfacing it in one easy-to-find place, personalized so each user only sees what's relevant to them.

Single point of entry

All of your HR tools, content and tasks available from one place for a simple self-service experience

AI-powered personalization

Clever AI means the portal morphs and changes depending on the user. Each employee gets an individual experience, so they only ever see what's relevant to them

Useful information, beautifully presented

Shining a spotlight on the most useful information for your employees (pay, leave, benefits and learning)

Nudges, alerts, badges and more

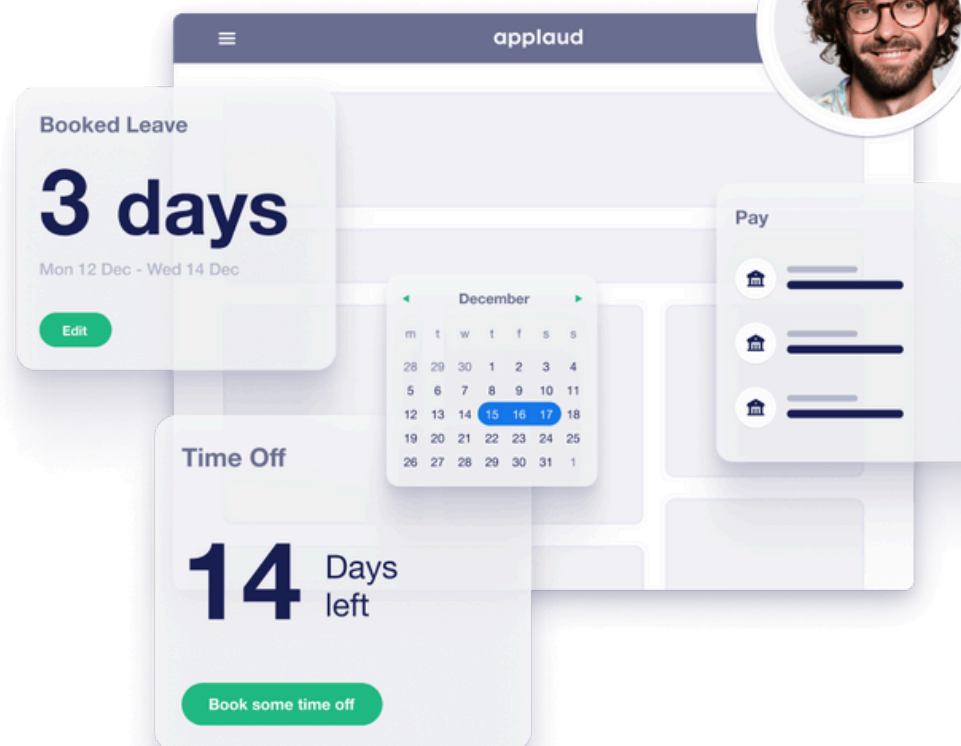

It does the remembering for your employees: birthdays work anniversaries, team members returning from leave, so nothing gets missed.
